FAREWELL TO MAJ. HARRIS

TWO ROUSING SALVATION ARMY MEETINGS

First Public Appearance of the Cadet Corps—Major Harris' Work for the Juniors and in the Territory

Major Wood and Major Harris of the Salvation Army return by the Kinau today from Hawaii and Maui, and tonight and Sunday night will witness two rousing "Farewell" meetings to Major Harris who leaves Tuesday next for the coast.

Major Harris is at the head of the junior work of the Salvation Army for the Pacific Coast division. He came here a month ago with Col. French, and when the latter was unexpectedly called back, he completed the work of inspection here. Col. French had come to do. Major Harris has been on each of the principal islands of the group, meeting the soldiers and officers in their regular work and has acquainted himself with the difficulties of the work.
According to Salvation Army custom he is to "Farewell" before leaving here.
The farewell will take the form of two special meetings, each of which it is hoped will be largely attended and successful, to be held tonight and to-morrow night, Saturday and Sunday.

One of the features of these meetings will be the first appearance of the cadet corps. The cadet corps is a body of Salvationists taken from the ranks of the juniors, and trained and instructed for Salvation Army work until they become old enough to go into the regular army training school. The instruction consists of courses of bible study and other work and instruction suitable to the age of the cadets which varies from twelve to eighteen or twenty. Major Harris has organized the first cadet corps yet organized in this territory though the regular workers had the juniors in preparation for organization on his arrival. The Honolulu corps numbers eight. Of these five are in the Salvation Army band and aid in the work in this way.

CHINESE MAY COME.

May Land From the States But Return Is Doubtful.

United States Attorney General Knox has given a ruling upon the question of allowing Chinese to enter Hawaii from San Francisco, under which the two Chinese arriving on the Mariposa, and detained by the custom house have the right to land. It was ruled here, under instructions from the Treasury Department, that the Chinese could not land, and Judge Estee refused to interfere, on the ground that he had no jurisdiction.

The opinion of the attorney general contains the following on the subject:
"The Attorney General has also held that all Chinese persons who have a right to be in the United States, as evidenced by valid certificates of residence or registration, are entitled to pass from the United States to the Hawaiian Islands and to be protected while there by their registration certificates, as they would be in any organized territory of the continental and integral domain of the United States.

"The Attorney General, however, specially limits his opinion to this one question, and does not pass upon their right to return to the United States. He also strictly limits his views of the liberty of passage of Chinese persons to the different portions of the United States to this particular case, which submits the question as affecting this particular Territory of Hawaii."

Under this opinion Chinese who come from the mainland may be unable to return.

HAWAIIAN MAIL.

Great Increase in Amount Since Islands
Were Annexed.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—G. W.
Carr, assistant superintendent in charge of the railway mail service in Hawaii, was in conference with Acting Postmaster General Shallenberger today. He says the volume of the mails in Hawaii has increased fully 100 per cent since the American regime began.
Save for himself, two inspectors and three clerks from San Francisco, the entire Hawaiian postal system is administered by resident officials and employees.

The postmasters throughout the Islands, besides the native Hawaiians and the Americans who were there before the American regime was installed, include English, German, Portuguese and other nationalities. None of the ninety or one hundred postoffices on the islands has had to call on the United States for employees of any kind.

Carr will return to Honolulu by the 15th proximo, when he will arrange transportation service for four years beginning next year. He will go from here to New York to look into the seaport mail service on the American line, preliminary to instituting a similar service on the Oceanic line between San Francisco and Honolulu, under which a postal clerk will be aboard each steamer.

THEY WILL SLEEP.

WASHINGTON, August 13.—The Navy Department has been informed that it will be impossible to maintain the afternoon sessions of the nautical school at Manila for the curious reason that the Spanish and Filipino students go to sleep over the hour over the report has been made by Lieutenant Townley, lately in charge of the school, but who is now charged with asking aid from merchants to permit army officers to make good their accounts.
The report is to the effect that it is impossible to change the Spanish habit of the siesta. The students come to school all right, but when the traditional time comes, they all go to sleep. This has demoralized the teachers and it is now recommended that there be a continuous session from about 7 a. m. until about noon, when the boys will be allowed to go home and sleep.

UNIFORMS FOR CARMEN.

It was reported among the drivers of the Hawaiian Tramways Company this morning that a general order was about to be issued for the wearing of a regulation uniform. There was considerable disquietment among the men who did not see how they were going to provide uniforms while only earning 15 cents an hour. William H. Pain, the manager of the company stated today that he knew nothing about the matter, that he might or might not issue such an order, but had not done so, nor had any intention of doing so at present.

A GOOD THING.

There's one good thing when they feel dry.
That business men cannot pass by,
For far and wide it's fame you hear, They stop to drink of "Rainier" beer On draught or in bottle at Criterion.
